Many people have heard of the story of Bernadette Soubirous and know the story of Lourdes, where miraculous waters continue to heal the sick and the lame in France. The story of Lourdes is told in the Jean Delannoy film, Bernadette, shown daily in French and English as the official film at the Lourdes grotto. This two-hour feature film starring Sydney Penny, with its exceptional cinematography and beautiful music score, portrays the simplicity, spirituality, and faith of the young Bernadette. This movie invites the viewer to experience the early life of this beautiful saint, through the apparitions and up until the time she entered the convent of the Sisters of Nevers.
