Lesson 5: Love Others as God Loves You

The story for this lesson is an adaptation of Luke 10:30–37. We are made in the image of God to do what God does. God loves us; God loves everyone. This means that because God loves us and everyone, we should love ourselves and everyone else. First we should love God, then we should love ourselves, and then we should love others as God loves us. When we love others, we make ourselves happy because we are acting as God made us to act.

Concepts of Faith

Whom does God love?

Lesson 16: God Should Come First in Our Lives

The story for this lesson is an adaptation of Matthew 7:24–29. When we live our lives showing that we are images of God in all we “think, and say, and do,” then we show that God comes first for us. It may not always be easy to do what is right, but when we obey and think of others before ourselves, we are living as Jesus taught and showing that God is most important in our lives. The material things we have—toys, jewelry, houses, money, etc.—are good and are for our use, but they are not the most important part of life. God should be first in our lives.
