More than four years in the making and published with the permission and cooperation of Mother Teresa of Calcutta, this large format 224 page book offers the most comprehensive photographic documentation of the apostolic work and prayer life of the Missionaries of Charity yet published. Destined to serve as an important historical record, this “illustrated prayer book” vividly portrays the peace and joy that can come when “small things” are done with great love.

The more than 180 fine art quality tri-tone photographs, along with spiritual counsel from Mother Teresa, will provide a lifetime of rich material for prayer and meditation. Also included is an appendix containing the contents of the Missionaries of Charity daily prayer book as well as a most personal and profound letter on the interior life written by Mother Teresa during Holy Week of 1993 and addressed to her entire order. Though meant originally as an instruction and appeal to those in her order, this “I Thirst” letter is certain to become a source of spiritual light and encouragement, drawing innumerable hearts and souls closer to God.

“Let us pray that this book will draw people to Jesus, help them realize how much God loves them, and help them to want to pray. Let it be for the glory of God and the good of His people.”

Mother Teresa of Calcutta

A Personal Portrait • Leo Maasburg

Mother Teresa’s life sounds like a legend. The Albanian girl who entered an Irish order to go to India as a missionary and became an “Angel of the Poor” for countless people. She was greatly revered by Christians as well as Muslims, Hindus and unbelievers, as she brought the message of Christian love for one’s neighbor from the slums of Calcutta to the whole world.

Fr. Leo Maasburg was there as her close companion for many years, traveling with her throughout the world and was witness to countless miracles and incredible little-known occurrences. In this personal portrait of the beloved nun, he presents fifty amazing stories about her that most people have never heard, wonderful and delightful stories about miracles, small and great, that he was privileged to experience at Mother Teresa’s side. Stories of how, without a penny to her name, she started an orphanage in Spain, and at the same time saved a declining railroad company from ruin, and so many more.

They all tell of her limitless trust in God’s love, of the way the power of faith can move mountains, and of hope that can never die. These stories reveal a humorous, gifted, wise and arresting woman who has a message of real hope for our time. It’s the life story of one of the most important women of the 20th century as it’s never been told before. Illustrated with photographs, many from Fr. Maasburg’s personal collection.

“This is a book for readers who want an intimate portrait of a saint in the Catholic Church.”

THE KISS OF JESUS

How Mother Teresa and the Saints Helped Me to Discover the Beauty of the Cross

Donna-Marie Cooper O’Boyle

Donna-Marie Cooper O’Boyle is a Catholic author, a radio and television host, and an inspirational speaker known and admired from coast to coast. Yet with all of her public exposure, she has revealed very little about her personal history, that is, until now. When she discovered that sharing her struggles gives encouragement to others, she was persuaded to write this story of her life. Through all the dark valleys of the suffering in her life, Donna-Marie kept the fire of her faith burning. Helping her to see the beauty of the crosses in her life, and to rely on the presence and the providence of God, were saintly souls who became her friends and mentors. One of these was Blessed Mother Teresa, who was her confidant and spiritual mother for ten years.

“This extraordinary story will bring hope to all who are suffering.”

MOTHER TERESA
Come Be My Light
Edited by Brian Kolodiejchuk, M.C.

A moving chronicle of Mother Teresa’s spiritual journey, including her darkest moments of desolation. These letters have been compiled by a friend, Fr. Brian Kolodiejchuk, M.C., the postulator for her cause for sainthood and director of the Mother Teresa Center. She emerges from her letters as a classic mystic whose spirit burned with the fire of charity and whose heart was tested and purified by an intense trial of faith, a true dark night of the soul.

“If I ever become a Saint—I will surely be one of ‘darkness.’ I will continually be absent from Heaven—to light the light of those in darkness on earth.”

THE HEART OF HOLINESS
Friendship with God and Others
Fr. Gary Lauenstein, CSsR

Can friendship be a stepping stone to holiness? With simplicity and grace, this book helps the reader to meditate on his understanding of himself, others, and God, and to look at his relationships in the light of their purpose—to give and to receive the love of God. The author shows how our path to God passes through and encompasses our friendships with one another.

“In this humble, graceful treatise on love and friendship, Fr. Lauenstein deftly embroiders the fabric of Scripture and the Church Fathers with many insightful anecdotes and illustrations from his own long experience, showing how anyone—you yourself included—can become clothed in holiness.”
— Patrick Madrid, Author, Life Lessons

“Filled with wisdom and anecdotes, this is a wonderful and unique book on holiness. I highly recommend it!”

NUMBERING MY DAYS How the Liturgical Calendar Rearranged My Life
Chene Heady

Chene Heady was the typical overextended and anonymous modern Catholic man. Then he tried an experiment that dramatically rearranged his life. After reading about the importance of the Church’s liturgical year, Heady took up the challenge to live as though the Church’s calendar, not the secular one, stood at the center of his life. As he did so, he found that his life, and his relationships, became more meaningful and fruitful.

“A delightful book! Through engaging personal stories, Chene Heady shows just how much it will change your life to center your days on the liturgical calendar.”
— Jennifer Fulwiler, Author, Something other than God

“Of the myriad ailments afflicting the modern world is the loss of the sense of the sacredness of time, a deafness to the rhythms that accentuate a truly Christian life. Chene Heady provides the antidote.”
— Pieter Vree, Editor, New Oxford Review

MOTHER ANGELICA
Her Grand Silence
Raymond Arroyo
More than a decade after the release of Arroyo’s definitive biography of Mother Angelica, audiences want to know the rest of the story. This is it. In a moving, dramatic conclusion to her story, Raymond Arroyo completes the saga of this singular nun with his most intimate book yet. Here are Mother Angelica’s spiritual battles—including encounters with demons and angels and the all too human struggle of dealing with infirmity.

“Even now, I still meet with Mother in memory and in spirit. And though I miss her physical presence, the writing of this work has allowed me to once again spend long hours with her and share her essence with others. This final book in the canon captures the last bittersweet years of a faithful woman who, in her grand silence and through her pain, touched more lives and did more good than anyone imagined. It also gives us an opportunity to have one last visit with the sister we called ‘Mother.’”

BEARING FALSE WITNESS
Debunking Centuries of Anti-Catholic History
Rodney Stark
Some of our most firmly held ideas about history, ideas that paint the Catholic Church in the least positive light are, in fact, fiction. Historian Rodney Stark corrects the record by telling the startling truth behind popular legends such as the Inquisition, Pope Pius XII, the “Dark Ages”, and more. Readers will not only have a more accurate history of the Catholic Church, they will come to understand why it became unfairly maligned for so long.

“Stark writes as an historian, not an apologist; but the truth is not only good history, but also the best defense of the Church.”
— Gerald J. Russello, National Catholic Register
“Rodney Stark gives the last acceptable prejudice a sound thrashing and clears up a lot of confused history along the way. Give this fine book to anyone you know who’s been subjected to ‘social studies.’”

THE FOOL OF NEW YORK CITY
Michael D. O’Brien
Set in present day Manhattan, The Fool of New York City is the tale of two souls who are considered to be “fools” and “idiots” in the eyes of most people they encounter. One is a literal giant, Billy, the other an amnesiac who believes he is the seventeenth-century Spanish painter Francisco de Goya, hundreds of years old, aging more slowly than the rest of the human race. Together they undertake the search to discover Francisco’s true past.

“The Fool of New York City is an absorbing meditation on memory, identity, and the human capacity for survival and love in the midst of the most devastating of tragedies.”

THE TIME BEFORE YOU DIE
Lucy Beckett
A powerful, beautifully written historic novel of loss, finding and being found, set in a very traumatic period in Europe. The turbulent sixteenth century was particularly destructive in Tudor England. Especially affected were the monks and nuns who were persecuted by the wholesale dissolution of the monasteries carried out under Henry VIII. One of these monks, Robert Fletcher, a Carthusian, is the hero of this novel.

“Lucy Beckett combines scholarship with imagination to tell the story of an exiled Carthusian monk and of a great ecclesiastical statesman who tragically failed to save England for the Catholic Church. An enlightening, moving, historical novel that is a pleasure to read.”

THE LEAVES ARE FALLING
Lucy Beckett
An octogenarian bookseller living alone in London has found a description of his father, as a young doctor in 1920s Breslau, in a story about Weimar Germany. Perhaps his own story might be worth telling? In 1945, as a sixteen-year-old boy rescued from the ruins of Europe, he arrives at a Yorkshire farmhouse. Working on the farm for two years in the strange atmosphere of rural England, he learns to deal with his memories of what happened to him and to his family and to trust, up to a point, those around him in a foreign country.

“A gripping novel with complex characters who wrestle with some of the most difficult questions of the human experience, The Leaves Are Falling is the kind of book that stays with the reader for a long time.”

BENEDICT XVI’S REFORM

The Liturgy between Innovation and Tradition

Nicola Bux

When Benedict XVI reestablished the celebration of the older Latin Mass, voices of protest rose up from many sides. A professor of theology and liturgy, the author of this book explains the motives behind Pope Benedict’s decision to allow two forms of the Mass. He does this by turning to the Pope’s own theological and liturgical writing.

“These pages help us to recover that sacred reality expressed by the liturgy: in liturgical action, understanding, in the Enlightenment sense, is not enough; thus, the translations into the vernacular are not enough: it is necessary to rediscover that the liturgy is, first of all, the place of encounter with the living God.”

The Man Who Founded California

The Life of Saint Junipero Serra
M.N.L. Couve de Murville

An historical and spiritual biography of Serra from his childhood and student days in Majorca, Spain, to his time in Mexico, and to his great missionary work in California. Regarded as a great teacher by his order, his superiors initially made Serra a professor of theology at the Lullian University in Palma, Spain. After teaching for five years, he answered the call to be a missionary to the New World, and embarked on a ship to Mexico in 1749. For the rest of his life he worked tirelessly as a preacher and a missionary in Mexico and California, his motto being “Always forward, never back.” Numerous illustrations, most in color, of the life and work of Serra.

condemned for attempted assassination and sedition, the Jewish prince Judah Ben-Hur is betrayed by his erstwhile childhood Roman friend, Messala, and is sentenced to the galleys while his family is cruelly imprisoned. A providential turn of events brings Ben-Hur to a fierce chariot race with Messala and, ultimately, back to Jerusalem, during the ministry of Jesus. Ben-Hur’s faith in Jesus as the Messiah is challenged by his crucifixion at the hands of both the Romans and Jewish authorities. But neither Ben-Hur’s story nor Jesus’ story ends there.

Ben-Hur A Race to Glory

An animated version for young viewers of the classic story. Young Ben-Hur and Messala were the best of friends. They loved to race chariots. One day, Messala had to leave Jerusalem and his Jewish friend, to study in Rome and become a Roman officer. When Messala came back, the boyhood friends were now men, but friends no longer. Messala falsely imprisoned Ben-Hur’s family and sent him to the galleys. But Ben-Hur survived. And he returned, seeking his family—and Messala. The former friends squared off for one last, desperate chariot race. One of the most thrilling, inspiring adventures ever.

Quo Vadis Deluxe 2-Disk Edition

This superb 2-disc special edition is finally available on DVD. The outstanding cast includes Robert Taylor, Deborah Kerr, Peter Ustinov, and Leo Genn. Set in Rome during the reign of the Emperor Nero (Ustinov), Quo Vadis chronicles the love story between the Christian slave girl Lygia (Kerr), and Marcus (Taylor), a Roman General, while depicting the larger conflict between Christianity and the corruption of the Roman Empire. Includes a second disk with many ‘extras’ on the classic film.

Will Wilder: The Relic of Perilous Falls

Will Wilder is a mischievous, headstrong twelve-year-old with an otherworldly gift—he alone can see the nefarious creatures encroaching on Perilous Falls. For nearly a century, a sacred relic has protected his hometown from the raging waters surrounding it. But when Will “borrows” the relic for his own purposes, he accidentally unleashes an ancient evil.

As boats sink and hideous creatures crawl from the rising waters, Will must set things right before it is too late. With the help of his sweet (if lethal) Great Aunt Lucille, the curator of a museum of powerful artifacts, Will proves that the actions of one twelve-year-old boy can change the world. Age Range: 8 - 12 years

“Suspense, adventure, humor, a compelling story, and characters that fired my imagination. Great fun and great frights.”

—Dean Koontz, #1 New York Times best-selling author

TO BE A PILGRIM  The Canterbury Way
An ancient trail of pilgrimage runs through south-east England, a pathway along which so much of English identity converges. It is the way of St Thomas Becket, the martyr who stood up to a King and inspired Christendom. It is a route that drew countless pilgrims in ages past, captured the imagination of Chaucer, and interest in this pilgrim path is strongly reviving again today.

This beautifully photographed film follows Fr. Marcus Holden and Fr. Nicholas Schofield as they journey on pilgrimage from London to Canterbury. Along the way they discover the story of St Thomas and various fascinating traditions: the Rood of Boxley, the splendor of Rochester, the “second Carmel” at Aylesford, and many more.

By retracing the inspiring journey of the medieval pilgrims, this film reveals the rich Christian heritage of England, and provides a profound reflection for all Catholics on what it means ‘To Be A Pilgrim.’

OUR GOD’S BROTHER
Based on the play by Karol Wojtyla (St. John Paul II)
This is the true story of St. Albert Chmielowski, an acclaimed Polish artist and painter in the 1800’s who was a major inspiration for young Karol Wojtyla, later Pope John Paul II. Albert became dissatisfied with his painting, and disillusioned about the meaning of life, when he met several tramps that triggered his passion to help the poor. He gave up his promising painting career, and became a monk who served the poor for the rest of his life. This movie is based on a play written by Wojtyla as a tribute to his love for St. Albert. Directed by famed Polish filmmaker Krzysztof Zanussi, and starring Scott Wilson and Christoph Waltz.

RISEN
Risen is the epic Biblical story of the Resurrection, as told through the eyes of a non-believer. Clavius (Joseph Fiennes), a powerful Roman military tribune, and his aide, Lucius (Tom Felton), are tasked with solving the mystery of what happened to Jesus (Cliff Curtis) in the weeks following the crucifixion, in order to disprove the rumors of a risen Messiah and prevent an uprising in Jerusalem. Rated PG-13 for biblical violence including some disturbing images.

LIBERATING A CONTINENT
John Paul II and the Fall of Communism
One of history’s greatest examples of the triumph of spiritual power over violence and oppression is vividly recounted here, narrated by Jim Caviezel. Featuring the unique insights of leaders such as papal biographer George Weigel, esteemed Polish historian Norman Davies, Pontifical John Paul II Institute Vice President Carl Anderson, John Paul’s lifelong assistant Cardinal Stanislaw Dziwisz, Reagan National Security Advisor Richard Allen, and many others, this inspiring film gives an inside look at the improbable downfall of one of history’s most brutal regimes.

HAPPINESS, SUFFERING, AND THE LOVE OF GOD

A Video Series by Fr. Robert J. Spitzer, S.J.

As Aristotle observed, “Happiness is the one thing you choose for itself; everything else is chosen for the sake of happiness.” Yet even though happiness is our goal, many people don’t know how to successfully pursue it. In this series Fr. Robert Spitzer, S.J., Ph.D. explores happiness in the revealing light of human transcendence and immortality. Beginning with the commonly held principle that different forms of happiness correspond to different fundamental human desires, Fr. Spitzer guides viewers through four distinct but related sources of happiness (pleasure, achievement, contribution, transcendence), showing how they form a hierarchy and explaining why only the highest level (transcendent happiness) will ultimately fulfill us. Along the way he presents fascinating evidence for our spiritual nature from philosophy, psychology, and contemporary studies of near-death experiences and the resurrection of Jesus Christ. This is followed by an investigation into the mystery of suffering that begins with the parable of the Father of the Prodigal Son. Fr. Spitzer explains why an unconditionally loving God would allow suffering and also offers guidance on how to suffer well.
